Extension of insurance policies can be applied no later than December _____ graduation session.

The student will be covered by the aforementioned policies until he has completed his/her thesis work and in any case no later than the delivery of the thesis in electronic format.

For the purposes of this Agreement, 'Confidential information' refers to all the knowledge, data, information, discovery (susceptible or not susceptible of patent protection), know-how and, more in general, any technical (i.e., related to R&D as well as industrial activities), corporate or commercial information owned by one of the Parties, which: (1) is considered and treated as Confidential Information by its owner and has an economic value; (2) is disclosed to the student orally, graphically, in writing, using magnetic or electronic tools or by any other media; (3) is identified as confidential by the Disclosing Party at the time of disclosure to the Receiving Party.

The Disclosing Party must indicate the confidential nature of the above mentioned information, data and knowledge by an appropriate legend, marking, stamp or other positive identification ('RESERVED', 'CONFIDENTIAL', 'CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION'). If the Confidential Information is disclosed orally, the Disclosing Party must, within 15 days after disclosure, deliver to the Receiving Party a writing containing an adequate description of the oral information which shall be considered as confidential information. The Student undertakes to hold in confidence any Confidential information that was disclosed to him/her while working on the thesis project.

The Student must be ensured the possibility to defend his/her thesis in public. When access to a thesis needs to be restricted in order to keep its contents confidential, students can request to withhold their thesis for a certain period of time (embargo); in this case, the University will not publish or disclose the thesis contents (including data and images) except for metadata.

With reference to the Student's activities and to the related generated results shall apply the "Regulations of the Polytechnic of Turin relating to Industrial and Intellectual Property" currently in force, available on the University website.
