GUIDELINES

Through the Staff Training Mobility scheme, Erasmus+ offers professional development opportunities for academic and professional services staff to improve the skills required for their current job by participating in training in an another country in Europe.

Training may take the form of:

- A short secondment period
- Job-shadowing
- Attendance at workshops or courses
- Attendance at a staff training week

Training programming could be built around:

- The transfer of knowledge and good practise
- Learning from shared experience
- The acquiring of new practical skills
- To discovery of new ideas for teaching and learning

As well as benefit the individual's professional development, Erasmus+ Staff Mobility is intended to contribute to the wider Internationalisation and modernisation strategies of the home university.

The agreement must be signed by the three parties in this order:

- 1. Staff Member
- 2. Sending institution
- 3. Receiving Institution

The staff member is strongly recommended to agree on the mobility activities with the receiving organization before submitting the Mobility Agreement.
