You can be exempted from having the IELTS 5.0 and IELTS 5.5 certificates if, upon enrolment, you provide a stamped declaration/certificate written on official letter headed paper, which certifies that:

- a) you have attended at least one school year at a high school in which the medium of instruction is English. In this case the school must issue a certificate stating that "The medium of instruction is English".
- b) you have a foreign high school diploma which is recognized by the Italian Ministry of Education and Research as equivalent to the Italian high school diploma (diploma di maturità), or you have a higher qualification awarded by a higher education institution in which the medium of instruction is English. In both cases the school must issue a certificate stating that "The medium of instruction is English".

With regard to points "a" and "b", please note that diplomas awarded by high schools in the USA, UK , Canada, Ireland, Australia and New Zealand do not need to include the phrase "The medium of instruction is English".
