

RESERVED PhD POSITIONS

PhD positions reserved to recipients of scholarships granted by Governments or by national or foreign public bodies	These positions are offered to the applicants who are declared eligible for admission at the end of the selection process following the order of the ranking list (see art. 10 paragraph 3 of call for admission) and are already holders of a scholarship provided by Governments or by national or foreign public bodies. Beneficiaries of the scholarship provided by the Southern University of Science and Technology who are not Chinese citizens, must follow the provisions for the requirements and the selection process referred to in art. 5 and 8 of call for admission.
PhD positions reserved to the POLITO-PHD-CHINA project	These positions are reserved for Chinese citizens who are recipients of scholarships provided by the China Scholarship Council or by the Southern University of Science and Technology. Applicants interested in these scholarship must follow the procedure detailed in Annex 1 of call for admission.
PhD positions reserved to the POLITO for REFUGEES project	These positions are reserved for holders of international protection. Applicants interested in this type of position must follow what is indicated in Annex 2 of call for admission.
PhD positions reserved to research fellows	These positions are offered to the applicants who are declared eligible for admission at the end of the selection process following the order of the ranking list (see art. 10 paragraph 3 of call for admission) and are already holders of a research grant. The number of positions reserved to research fellows is equal to half of the number of ordinary positions for each PhD programme, rounded up to the nearest unit. The topic of the research fellowship and the topic of the PhD thesis must be the same. The Academic Board may give a binding opinion on the compatibility of the two activities. Research fellowships are not compatible with PhD scholarships.