Confidential information that was disclosed to him/her while working on the thesis project.

The Student must be ensured the possibility to defend his/her thesis in public. When access to a thesis needs to be restricted in order to keep its contents confidential, students can request to withhold their thesis for a certain period of time (embargo); in this case, the University will not publish or disclose the thesis contents (including data and images) except for metadata.

For more information, please check the Final Examination Guidelines available in the Student Guide.

Besides, we inform you that outgoing students to be hosted at institutions/companies:

- Shall be informed and trained before departure by Politecnico di Torino on general risks at "country of destination" with the information available on institutional channels, as well as of risks associated with the activities they will carry out at host institutions/companies;
- Shall be informed and trained before departure by Politecnico di Torino on the need to adopt COVID-19 prevention measures already in place in Italy as well as those of the host country;
- Shall agree and commit to complying with all COVID-19 prevention measures in place at Politecnico di Torino as well as those in place and communicated by the host institutions/companies before departure.

Conversely, the host institution/company:

- Shall provide and adopt all preventive and safety measures to protect the health and safety of our students, assuming any risk assessment burden, even if only potential, to which students could be exposed to during their stay at your institution/company;
- Shall provide and ensure students with the training and information about the specific risks associated with the activities to be carried out at your premises as well as the places they will have access to;
- Shall provide and ensure the information and training of students regarding the risks and measures taken by host institution/company for the prevention of COVID-19.
