

POLITECNICO
DI TORINO

my research
in three minutes

Tiziana Vitrano award
III edition

Take part in the competition

Three minute to effectively explain the research carried out at Politecnico to a non-specialist audience between study, laboratory activity and work jointly carried out with companies and international research institutions.

The award is named after Tiziana Vitrano, who has been the Media Relations Head Officer for many years and has always worked actively for the scientific disclosure, with particular regard to young researchers.

THE PRIZES:

€ 1.500 for the first classified
€ 1.000 for the second classified
€ 500 for the third classified

ABOUT THE COMPETITION:

A jury of scientific disclosure experts will evaluate the oral presentations, made in Italian or English, with the support of slides. The following criteria will be evaluated:

- Clarity of the communication that should be aimed at a non-specialist audience
- Appropriateness and accuracy of the language used
- Use of the supporting material (slides)
- Observance of the time limit of 3 minutes and correct use of the available time

WHO CAN APPLY:

PhD candidates of XXXI and XXXII Cycle of Politecnico di Torino

DEADLINE:

Applicants shall submit the application form as detailed in the call by 18 September 2018.

The final competition will take place in the morning of 7 November 2018 during the PhD graduation ceremony.

Eligible candidates will be shortlisted on 15 and 16 October 2018 at Salone d'Onore – Castello del Valentino.

CALL:

<http://dottorato.polito.it/en/home>

ScuDo

Scuola di Dottorato - Doctoral School
WHAT YOU ARE, TAKES YOU FAR